

Level 2 Health & Safety Handbook

16th Edition November 2021 ISBN 978-1-912633-85-2

Date of update:
November 2021

The following updates have been made to the 16th edition of this publication.

Page No	Update comments
Page 3	The statistics have been updated to: In 2020/2021 there were 142 fatal injuries to workers In 2019/2020 38.8 million working days were lost due to workplace injuries/illness
Page 24	Images of safety signs have been updated to: The image shows four categories of safety signs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>RED SIGNS: Two signs with red borders and white backgrounds. One shows a hand holding a drink with a red slash over it, labeled 'Hot drinks'. The other shows a hand holding a lit cigarette with a red slash over it, labeled 'No smoking'. Below them is the text 'indicate a PROHIBITION.'</li> <li>BLUE SIGNS: Two signs with blue borders and white backgrounds. One shows a hand with a blue circle and a white checkmark, labeled 'Safety glasses must be worn'. The other shows a white exclamation mark in a blue circle, labeled 'Report all accidents immediately'. Below them is the text 'indicate a MANDATORY instruction.'</li> <li>YELLOW SIGNS: Two signs with yellow borders and white backgrounds. One shows a black flame in a yellow triangle, labeled 'Danger fire risk'. The other shows a black lightning bolt in a yellow triangle, labeled 'Danger electricity'. Below them is the text 'indicate a WARNING (hazard or danger).'</li> <li>GREEN SIGNS: Two signs with green borders and white backgrounds. One shows an eye with a plus sign and a water tap, labeled 'Emergency eye wash'. The other shows a white cross in a green square, labeled 'First aid box'. Below them is the text 'indicate a SAFE condition (useful information).'</li> </ul>
Page 28	The text has been updated to include the word 'textiles': WATER: Type of fire: wood, paper, textiles and fabrics

---End---